The RIDGE Summer School will take place in the framework of the LACEA Meeting between 20 to 22 of November, 2025 in Recife, Brazil. In addition to attending six RIDGE Summer School lectures by highly reputed economists, students are expected to participate of the LACEA Meeting attending plenary and invited sessions.

For further information on the LACEA Meeting visit <https://www.lacea2025.org/en>

The RIDGE Summer School aims to foster the development of outstanding young economists by immersing them in the latest advances in economic research and policy debates. Designed especially for graduate students from Latin America and the Caribbean, the programme provides a unique opportunity to engage with leading international scholars, exchange ideas with peers from diverse backgrounds, participate in the LACEA meeting sessions and explore frontier topics in development, growth, and international economics. By bridging academic excellence with regional priorities, the Summer School plays a key role in strengthening the global community of economists committed to rigorous research and informed policymaking.

Participants

The Summer School targets outstanding graduate economists. Priority will be given to Latin American and Caribbean students enrolled in Post graduate programs in economics.

Interested students should apply by submitting a short CV (2 pages maximum), a transcript, and a letter of recommendation via the RIDGE website: November 2025 | RIDGE

The Scientific Committee, following standard criteria, will make the selection according to: GPA, publications and awards, a letter of recommendation and work experience.

The deadline for applying is September 14, 2025

The notification of the Scientific Committee decision will be sent September 30, 2025

Only selected students will participate.

Financial support

Participants to the RIDGE Summer School will be exempted of payment of the LACEA Meeting registration fees.

Some support there will be available for accommodation.
